THE DAVID CLOVER FESTIVAL OF SINGING

Trophies - All competitors accepting trophies will be deemed to have given an undertaking for their safe custody, in being asked to sign a form of receipt for each trophy gained, before taking their trophies away. The trophies are to be held by the winners from February 2013 until 15 November 2013. These trophies should then be returned to the Trophy Steward in a clean condition please, on or before 15 November 2013, in readiness for the 2014 Festival. Any cost incurred in recovering trophies not returned by 15 November 2013 will be charged to the competitor. Upon their return, the Festival undertakes to engrave the trophies.

All trophies are the property of the Festival and must not be taken out of the country. Lost trophies must be replaced and the replacement of a lost trophy, or the cost of repair of damage to a trophy, will be the responsibility of the current holder. It is felt reasonable to assume that trophy winners will make adequate provision for insuring the trophies while in their possession.
Please inform the Trophy Steward of any change of contact details between 10 February and 15 November 2013.

Entry Fees - The fees, which are non-returnable, should be enclosed when sending in the Application Form.

2013 ADJUDICATOR - MARK WILDMAN FRM FRSA

Mark received his early musical education at The King's School, Gloucester and as a chorister in Gloucester Cathedral. Later on he studied at The Royal Academy of Music where he was awarded the Westmorland Scholarship, the Recital Diploma and the Frederick Slinn Fellowship. In 1976, whilst still a student at the RAM, he won a Choral Exhibition at St. George's Chapel, Windsor Castle, where he sang for three years. Mark has travelled throughout Europe, Scandinavia, the British Isles and the USA, where as well as works from the standard repertoire, engagements have included Walton's Belsazar's Feast, Mahler's Symphony of a Thousand, Elgar's The Kingdom, Stravinsky's Les Noces and Puccini's La Bohème. In 1976 Mark sang in the first of a series of performances of the complete Church Cantatas of J.S. Bach. To date he has performed nearly 200 of these including the solo cantatas Ich habe genug and ich will den Kreuzstab gerne tragen. He has sung with most of Britain's foremost orchestras, at the Promenade concerts and at a number of British and European Festivals. In recital, Mark has a wide repertoire ranging from the works of Purcell, Boyce and Aene to those of Roger Steptoe, Philip White, Arthur Wills and Giles Swayne, of whose works he has given first performances. He combines a busy performing career with that of a Professor of Singing at the Royal Academy of Music where he was appointed Head of Vocal Studies in 1991. He is a much travelled adjudicator and is an examiner for the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music. He was elected a Fellow of the Royal Academy of Music in 1994 and a fellow of the Royal Society of Arts in 1995.

Dr. David Clover came to Sheffield in 1966 having been appointed as the city's Music Adviser to the Education Department. It was one of the earliest residential courses for music teachers and its daily choral sessions, organised by David, which brought the first members of The Sheffield Teachers' Choir (as it was then known) together in 1968.

Following David's untimely death in 1979, The Teachers' Choir committee at the time decided that there should be a fitting and lasting tribute and memorial to his work. The result, in 1979, was the establishment of The David Clover Vocal Prize, the first competition being held in 1980. The David Clover Vocal Prize later became The David Clover Competition for Singers, and in 2010 was re-named The David Clover Festival of Singing. The original Vocal Prize provided an opportunity for singers to perform songs of their own choice with a view to being helped and encouraged by experienced judges of singing, and that ethos is still as strong as it ever was.

The Vocal Prize started in a very small way with only two classes for those of secondary schoolage. Since its inception, it has grown into a competitive event of worth, high standing, credibility and stature in the eyes of discerning musicians not only in and around the city of Sheffield, but also nationally. It has also proved itself a worthy vehicle of encouragement and support for young singers, but the re-named Festival is now open to all singers from the age of nine, and its chief objective is to foster this branch of music making which was ever one of Dr. Clover's greatest loves - singing. He strongly maintained, as others have done, that everyone has a musical instrument which can be developed - the voice - and much of his work was devoted to fostering the use of young voices whether as soloists or choralists. He believed that the voice deserved equal status with other musical instruments.

Over the years, internationally famed singers and teachers of singing have adjudicated at the Festival, including Constance Shacklock (contralto and the President from 1985 - 1999), Marjorie Thomas (contralto), Jean Allister (contralto), Rae Woodland (soprano), Nigel Perrin (ex-Kings Singers), Mollie Petrie (soprano and the Festival's current President) and Mark Wildman (bass, currently Head of Vocal Studies at the Royal Academy of Music, and the Festival's current Vice-President). Previous winners include Elizabeth Watts (international soprano) and Ella Taylor (BBC Radio 2 Choirgirl of the Year, 2010) and many others who have joined the singing professions.

Once the annual Festival has ended, The City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir is always delighted to invite singers from the Festival to share in its concerts whenever possible.

2014 FESTIVAL DATES : FRIDAY 7 FEBRUARY - SUNDAY 9 FEBRUARY

We wish all competitors an enjoyable performance at the Festival.
Recital Finals, Non-Recital Final, Adjudications and Presentation
Holiday Inn Royal Victoria,
Victoria Station Road, Sheffield S4 7YE
(SAT NAV users please use S1 2AU to reach the hotel)
* specific times will be announced in due course

Awards

All awards are made at the discretion of the adjudicator whose decisions are final, unless a singer exceeds the time limit (see page 9). It is expected that the prize money will be used to further the musical development of the prize winner.

In classes of 3 competitors or less, one prize only will be awarded.

In the unlikely and unexpected event of the standard of singing in any one class being of insufficient merit to justify a first place, a second place prize only will be awarded.

Recital Classes

The runner-up will receive a cash prize and a certificate.

The winner will receive the appropriate David Clover trophy, a cash prize, a memento and a certificate. Each will receive his/her awards at the Presentation of Awards on Sunday evening, 10 February 2013.

Non-Recital Classes

The runner-up will receive a cash prize and a certificate which will be presented at the end of each Class session after the adjudication.

The winner will receive the appropriate David Clover trophy, a cash prize, a memento and a certificate at the Presentation of Awards on Sunday evening, 10 February 2013.

Additional Awards

The John Gilbert Wilson Trophy and Prize, given by Mrs. J. Hammert in memory of her father, will be awarded to the most promising male singer between the ages of 16 and 23 in any appropriate Class. The Don Greenfield Trophy and Prize, given by Hallam Choral Society, will be awarded to the winner of the Vocal Solo Class (age 9 - 12). This award is in memory of the life and work of Don Greenfield, conductor for many years of the Hallam Choral Society and a former member of the City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir.

The Doug Crossland Memorial Shield, given by Worrall Male Voice Choir in memory of Doug Crossland, its conductor from 1971 to 1995, will be awarded to the most promising female singer between the ages of 16 and 23 in any appropriate Class.

The Constance Shacklock Memorial Rose Bowl, given by Ralph Green in memory of Constance Shacklock, who was President of the City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir and The David Clover Competition for Singers from 1985 to 1999, will be awarded for the most outstanding operatic performance during the Festival.

The Kathleen Walker Award, in memory of Kathleen Walker, who was a founder-member of The City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir, and a musical director of several operatic societies in Sheffield, will be awarded for the most outstanding performance from Classes 16 and 17 (Songs from the Shows).

The City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir Silver Salver and Prize, given by Ann Durrant, who was a member of The City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir for over twenty years, will be awarded for the most outstanding performance by a winner of the Non-Recital Classes.

The Michael Peaker Memorial Trophy is given by Worrall Male Voice Choir in memory of Michael Peaker, of his contribution as accompanist and conductor, and as organist at St. Matthias's Church, Stocksbridge. The award will be given for the most outstanding performance, by anyone aged 21 or under, of an aria from an oratorio, or of a sacred song, during the Festival.

The Edith and Ronald Batty Salvers, given by Valerie and Geoff Littledyke in memory of Valerie's parents, will be presented to the most promising female and male singers respectively, aged 15 or under, in any appropriate Class.

SAFEGUARDING POLICY

A copy of the Safeguarding Policy will be on display at the Festival and is also available on the Festival website. This policy relates to children (under the age of 18) and also members of vulnerable groups of any age who are identified to the Festival Coordinator before their arrival at the Festival. Contact should be made by parents and/or teachers via letter or telephone to The Festival Coordinator, 9 Carlton Rise, Pudsey, West Yorkshire LS28 7LS; tel: 0113 256 5320, or via the Festival email address. The Festival will actively seek to meet the needs of children from ethnic groups and children who are disabled. Any subsequent reference to 'children' includes members of other vulnerable groups.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES POLICY

No person shall receive less favourable treatment or consideration on the grounds of race, colour, religion or belief, nationality, ethnic or national origin, sexual orientation, gender re-assignment, age (i.e. 9 or over), disability or marital status, or be disadvantaged by any requirement or condition that cannot be justified. The opportunity for people to compete in the Festival is provided through a variety of classes. All sessions of the Festival are open to a public audience and the Festival will use only venues that have made provision for people with physical disabilities. The Festival will keep under review its policy, procedures and practices on equal opportunities.

FESTIVAL HELP

We want to see the Festival continue to provide opportunities for the encouragement and development of all its entrants, the competitive element being a means to this end. Even if you are a prospective competitor or competitor's supporter, you could still help to further our cause by helping in two ways - as a volunteer helper and/or providing financial support.

Volunteer helpers - are a welcome and essential part of running the Festival and there is always a need for new people to assist in various ways as helpers need to be replaced when volunteers retire. Helpers are sometimes former competitors, parents or teachers, or just anyone who is interested in promoting the performing arts. There is no need to be an expert, you just need to be committed, sensible, unflappable, a member of a team, but above all, have a sense of humour! Areas in which you could help are door stewards, ticket and programme sellers and refreshments. You don't have to be there all day, every day. Helpers can choose how much time they are able to give. If you would like to become a volunteer, please contact The Volunteer Helpers' Coordinator, Sonia Saint, on 0114 255 0549 (email: sesaint@talktalk.net) for details.

Financial support - To continue to mount the Festival and engage specialist adjudicators, we need ongoing financial assistance from individuals or businesses who are interested in helping the amazing range of vocal talent to flourish. The cost of running the Festival increases each year, and despite the sponsorship of the City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir, we are faced with raising more financial support in the future. Maybe you, or someone you know, can help to support the Festival in any of the following ways by:

- becoming a Friend of the The David Clover Festival (see back page for details)
- sponsoring the Festival
- advertising in future publications of this Handbook and/or the Festival programme.
- making a donation
- making a bequest

For information on the opportunities and benefits of sponsorship, advertisements, donations and bequests, please contact the Sponsorship Coordinator, Judith Adam, on 0114 255 4962 (email: judith.adam51@btconnect.com) by 10 November 2012. Any financial assistance offered may be able to increase in value if you are a tax payer and by 'gifting' your contribution where appropriate.

GENERAL INFORMATION

All recitals must adhere to the time limits. The time limit is for the musical performance i.e. from the first note of the accompaniment to the end of the last. It does not include short verbal introductions, which are encouraged, or gaps between songs. Any re-starts which are the fault of the singer are included in the performance time limit. Any re-starts which are not the fault of the singer will not be included in the performance time limit. Should a competitor exceed the time limit, an adjudication will be given, but the Festival reserves the right to withhold a placing.

Adjudicators - All adjudicators are appointed by The City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir Committee. No performer, teacher or member of the audience may approach the adjudicator in a class venue unless invited to do so, nor engage the adjudicator in conversation or discussion on any matter, before a session, or whilst the session is in progress, otherwise disqualification may be incurred.

Cancellation of a class - In the event of a class being poorly subscribed, it may be withdrawn at the discretion of the Committee and entry fees returned.

Photographs, Recording Equipment and Mobile Phones - Members of the audience as well as competitors and/or their supporters are not allowed to take photographs or make audio or video recordings at the Festival. Therefore, the use of any kind of camera, recording equipment, mobile telephone or other computerised device is strictly forbidden. However, the Festival may appoint a designated, authorised, professional photographer for publicity purposes to promote the work and ethos of the Festival and for the benefit of the performers. Competitors should indicate on the Application Form a) if they and/or their supporters have any objection to being included in any photographs taken by the official photographer and b) if they give permission for any photographs of them taken to be used for publicity purposes, etc, without further consultation from the Festival.

Safety of performers - Teachers and parents should be aware of their responsibilities in entering any performers with limited physical capabilities or special needs. They should pass on any such information that might impact on the Festival's work, in writing, before the start of the Festival, to the Festival Coordinator at DCFS, 9 Carlton Rise, Pudsey, West Yorkshire LS28 7LS - tel: 0113 256 5320.

Supervision of children - Please note that all children under 13 years must be accompanied and supervised effectively. Supervision may come from a parent, an adult acting on their behalf, a teacher or a group leader. The David Clover Festival of Singing can not take responsibility for unsupervised children at the Festival venues. Any person acting in a supervisory capacity will be expected to pay the normal admission fee.

Liability - The Festival does not hold itself responsible for any injuries sustained by any performer or member of the public whilst at Festival venues.

Lost Property - The Festival will not be responsible for property lost or damaged during the Festival.

Amateur status - The Festival is for amateur performers only and professionals are not eligible to enter. A professional is considered to be one who derives the major part of his/her livelihood from singing performance or the teaching of singing.

Entry and Exit - No person will be allowed to enter or leave the hall during any performance or adjudication as movement tends to distract the performer, the adjudicator, and the rest of the audience.

Withdrawals and Class Start Times - As it is impossible to foresee the number of last-minute withdrawals due to illness or for any other reason, the committee reserves the right to start classes, except for the first class of a session, early. Please make sure that you arrive in plenty of time.

The adjudicator will choose two competitors in each Recital Class who will become the winner and runner-up. These placings will be decided, and the awards presented, on the evening of Sunday 10 February 2013, when each competitor will repeat two songs of their own choice from their original programme. These two songs may, or may not, include the unaccompanied folk or traditional song.

Non-Recital Classes

Class 5	Vocal Solo (age 9-12 years) - one song
Class 6	British Song (age 13-16) - one song ~ excluding musicals, music theatre, opera, operetta and oratorio
Class 7	British Song (age 17-21) - one song ~ excluding musicals, music theatre, opera, operetta and oratorio
Class 8	British Song (age 22 and over) - one song ~ excluding musicals, music theatre, opera, operetta and oratorio
Class 9	Oratorio (1700-1900) or Sacred Song (age 13-16) - one song or aria in any language ~ excluding hymns and religious pop songs
Class 10	Oratorio (1700-1900) or Sacred Song (age 17-21) - one song or aria in any language ~ excluding hymns and religious pop songs
Class 11	Oratorio (1700-1900) or Sacred Song (age 22 and over) - one song or aria in any language ~ excluding hymns and religious pop songs
Class 12	Opera (age 17-21) - one aria in any language
Class 13	Opera (age 22 and over) - one aria in any language
Class 14	French Song (any age) - one song to be sung in the original language

Class 18	Songs from the Shows (age 22 and over) * - one song
Class 19	Anniversary (any age) - one song ** .

* Songs from the Shows (which may also come from operettas, but not from operas) should be performed as a concert item, i.e. without costume, movement (although gesture is permitted), recorded accompaniment or use of microphone.

** 2013 includes the anniversaries of the births of Dowland (1563), Verdi and Wagner (both in 1813) and Britten (1913). Songs in this class, therefore, should be chosen from the works of one of these composers.

In Classes 5 - 19, there is a performance time limit of 5 minutes to include any instrumental introduction, preliminary recitative, da capo and coda, but not any brief verbal introduction.

On the evening of Sunday 10 February 2013, the winner of each Non-Recital Class will sing the winning song of each class again. This will be in competition for The City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir Silver Salver and Prize which will be awarded for the most outstanding performance by a winner of the Non-Recital Classes. Should an individual win more than one Non-Recital Class, he or she should choose only one of his/her winning songs on this occasion. The singer will also receive his/her awards during this evening.

COMPETITOR INFORMATION

ADMISSION CHARGES - per session - payable at the door

Friday 8, Saturday 9, Sunday morning and afternoon 10 February
