Singers' Platform - Performer Information

This is an initiative in the David Clover Festival of Singing and is intended to provide the opportunity to post 'A' level singers studying at universities and conservatoires, and those having private tuition, to continue the development of their art with substantial award money. Winners from past Festivals have been offered paid engagements with choirs in Yorkshire and Derbyshire.

Eligibility to this section of the David Clover Festival of Singing is for Soprano, Mezzo-soprano and Contralto voices under 30 years and Counter tenor/Male Alto, Tenor, Baritone, Bass-baritone and Bass voices under 32 years at 27 January 2022. Entrants in the Singers' Platform are eligible for classes in this part of the Festival only.

Singers will receive specific details of timetable, procedures etc after the final date of the receipt of the Entry Form: 20 November 2021. Late entries will only be accepted in exceptional circumstances. Those singers who are post conservatoire/university and who have already crossed the threshold of the music profession and are earning a significant portion of their income from operatic principal, chorus or concert contracts are ineligible to participate in the Singers' Platform. There is a new award for singers under 22 years – see details under Awards.

Classes

Class 1: Recital

A recital of up to 20 minutes chosen from the following:

- A: an aria from a cantata, an opera, or an oratorio of any period
- B: 1 or 2 songs (excluding A) written before the 19th century
- C: 1 or 2 songs (excluding A) written during the 19th century
- D: 1 or 2 art songs (excluding A) written during the 20th or 21st centuries
- E: A song of the performer's own choice of any period and style
- F: a song composed without accompaniment or an unaccompanied traditional folk song.

All singers are asked to choose a programme varied in style, mood and language from the list of categories with a time limit of 20 minutes. The choice need not contain repertoire from each category but must contain a song from category F. Any arias should be in the original language and key.

Class 2: Opera

All singers should prepare 2 arias, at least one with recitative, in 2 different languages and by different composers with a time limit of 13 minutes.

Class 3: Oratorio or Sacred Song

1 aria or song (excluding hymns and religious pop songs) in the original language and key, time limit 7 minutes.

Class 4: French Song

1 song in the original language, time limit 5 mins. An aria from an Opera or Oratorio is not appropriate for this class.

Class 5: Lieder

1 song in the original language, time limit 5 mins. An aria from an Opera or Oratorio is not appropriate for this class.

Class 6: British Song

1 song, not an aria from Opera or Oratorio, time limit 5 mins. The song should be in English and the composer from the United Kingdom or Ireland. Your choice can be from any period.

The entries in the Recital and Opera Classes will be programmed into sessions on Thursday afternoon/evening; Friday afternoon/evening; Saturday morning/afternoon and Finals Saturday evening. In the event of an increase in entries, it may be necessary to use Thursday morning as well and/or to restrict entry numbers if there is insufficient time, so early application is strongly advised. To help singers travelling a long distance, we will try to ensure that all the classes entered by a performer are programmed on the same day, though not necessarily in the same session.

The adjudicators will choose the best 5 performances from all the Recital and Opera classes for the Finals on Saturday evening and finalists chosen from Thursday and Friday sessions will be informed on Friday evening at the latest.

In the French Song, Lieder, British Song and Oratorio Classes, winners from Thursday/Friday sessions will be chosen at the end of each class and will return to compete with winners from these classes from the Saturday sessions in the Finals on Saturday evening. A travel bursary of £50.00 will be awarded to all Thursday and Friday finalists to help with the cost of returning on Saturday. Multiple class winners will receive 1 bursary only.

Finals

Recital Class finalists will choose a shorter programme from their full Recital, varied in style, mood and language, with a time limit of 12 minutes.

Opera Class finalists will choose 1 recitative and aria from their preliminary programme with a time limit of 7 minutes.

Finalists from the French Song, Lieder, British Song and Oratorio Classes will sing their winning song again.

Time limits: All performances must adhere to the time limits including verbal introductions. Any re-starts which are the fault of the singer are included in the performance time limit. Any re-starts which are not the fault of the singer will not be included in the performance time limit. Should a performer exceed the time limit, an adjudication will be given, but the Festival reserves the right to withhold a placing and the adjudicators reserve the right to stop a performance that is excessively over time. N.B. Take great care with your timing! A number of singers in past years have not reached the Finals because their choices exceeded the time limits.

Song choices: A performer must NOT sing the same song in more than one class.

Programme changes will only be permitted after January 1st in exceptional circumstances.

Order of classes: Once the Entry Forms have been received, the order in which classes will take place will be determined and everyone will be duly informed.

Preparation for the Singers' Platform

- It is requested that performers dress appropriately for the occasion.
- An official accompanist will be available throughout the Festival, but performers may bring their own accompanist if they wish.
- Please adhere to all the required deadlines detailed in this Handbook.

Contact at the time of the Singers' Platform

The Festival may be contacted on 07836 474972 or 07479 946112.

Photographs, Recording Equipment and Mobile Phones: Due to copyright law and the Festival's safeguarding policy, members of the audience, as well as performers and their supporters, are not allowed to take photographs or make audio or video recording at the Festival. Therefore, the use of any kind of camera, recording equipment, mobile telephone or other computerised device is strictly forbidden. However, the Festival may appoint a designated, authorised photographer for publicity purposes to promote the work and ethos of the Festival and for the benefit of the performers. Performers should indicate on the Entry Form a) if they or their supporters have any objection to being included in any of the photographs taken by the official photographer and b) if they give permission for any photographs taken to be used for publicity purposes, etc., without further consultation from the Festival.

Awards

Class 1:	Winner £1,500	Runner-up £750
Class 2:	Winner £750	Runner-up £250
Class 3:	Winner £200
Classes 4-6:	Each winner £100
Special award of £150 for the best overall singer under 22 years chosen by the adjudicators. Entrants must enter Class 1 and at least one other class.

Singers' Platform Entries (deadline: 20 November 2021)

Entries should be sent to: The Entries Secretary, DCFS, 29 Kerwin Drive, Sheffield S17 3DG

Entry Forms: All entry forms, fees and music for the official accompanist/s, together with an A5 sized stamped addressed envelope, MUST be received by Saturday 20 November 2021 or the entry may not be accepted. It will be necessary to have your parcel containing music weighed to avoid underpayment of postage. Please write your song choices very clearly and in the order of performance giving the title, work and composer. Once the entry forms have been received, the order in which the classes will take place will be determined and everyone informed.

Entry fees, which are non-refundable, should be enclosed when sending in the Entry Form and are:

Classes 1 and 2: £30 each

Classes 3, 4, 5 and 6: £15 each

Music for the official accompanist must be unfolded and legible, and sent with the entry form as above. 1 original and 2 further copies are required for the adjudicators on the day.

The official accompanists are Tim Kennedy and Catherine Hall-Smith

We look forward to meeting, welcoming and hearing all the performers and wish you a happy, enjoyable and successful time at the Festival

Singers' Platform - General Information

Adjudicators: all adjudicators are appointed by the David Clover Festival of Singing. No performer, teacher or member of the audience may approach the adjudicator in each class venue unless invited to do so, nor engage the adjudicator in conversation or discussion on any matter, before or after a session, or whilst the session is in progress, otherwise disqualification may be incurred.

Audience Admission Charges

Charges are per person and per session and are payable in cash at the door (please also see details about becoming a Festival Friend on page 12):

Sessions	Adults	Accompanied children under 12
Thursday afternoon, Thursday evening, Friday afternoon, Friday evening, Saturday morning, Saturday afternoon	£5 for a single session £8 for 2 sessions on the same day £10 for 3 sessions on the same day	£2
Saturday evening Finals	£10	£3

Audience: An audience is welcome at all Festival sessions, so please support and encourage the Festival and its performers in their endeavours and appreciate and enjoy the talents of all the participants by being a member of the audience.

Cancellation of a class: In the event of a class being poorly subscribed, it may be withdrawn at the discretion of the Committee and the entry fees returned.

Car Parking: There is car parking in front of St. Andrew's Church or in the surrounding streets.

Entry and Exit: No person will be allowed to enter or leave the hall during any performance or adjudication as movement tends to distract the performer, accompanist, adjudicator and the rest of the audience.

Equal Opportunities Policy: No person shall receive less favourable treatment or consideration on the grounds of race, colour, religion or belief, nationality, ethnic or national origin, sexual orientation, gender re-assignment, age, disability or marital status, or be disadvantaged by any requirement or condition that cannot be justified. The opportunity for people to compete in the Festival is provided through a variety of classes. All sessions are open to a public audience and the Festival only uses venues that have made provision for people with physical disabilities. The Festival will keep under review its policy, procedures and practices on equal opportunities.

Festival Help: We want to see the Festival continue to provide opportunities for the encouragement and development of all its entrants, the competitive element being a means to an end. Even if you are a prospective performer or performer's supporter, you could still help to further our cause by helping in two ways – as a volunteer helper and/or providing financial support. Volunteer helpers are a welcome and essential part of running the Festival and there is always a need for new people to assist in various ways. There is no need to be an expert, you just need to be committed, sensible, unflappable and a member of a team, but above all, have a sense of humour! You don't have to be there all day, every day. Helpers can choose how much time they are able to give. If you would like to become a volunteer, please contact Joy Bowler via email: joybowler@googlemail.com for details. To continue to mount the Festival and engage specialist adjudicators, we need ongoing financial support and assistance from individuals and businesses who are interested in helping the amazing range of vocal talent to flourish. The cost of running the Festival increases each year, and although we receive some support from local organisations and individuals, we are faced with raising more financial support in the future.

Maybe you, or someone you know, can help to support the Festival in any of the following ways by:

- Becoming a Friend of the David Clover Festival;
- Sponsoring the Festival;
- Advertising in future publications of this Handbook and/or the Festival Programme;
- Making a donation;
- Making a bequest.

If you can help in any of these areas of financial support please contact the Festival via the email address: dcfs@davidclover-festivalofsinging.org.uk. Any financial assistance offered can be increased in value if you are a tax payer and by 'gift-aiding' your contribution where appropriate.

Liability: The Festival does not hold itself responsible for any injuries sustained by any performer or member of the public whilst at Festival venues.

Lost Property: The Festival will not be responsible for property lost or damaged during the Festival.

Queries which are not covered in this Handbook may be made at: DCFS, 269 Dobcroft Road, Sheffield S11 9LG or for general enquiries, email: enquiries@davidclover-festivalofsinging.org.uk or for music related enquiries, email: music@davidclover-festivalofsinging.org.uk

Refreshments: Light refreshments will be available at the church.

Safeguarding Policy: A copy of the Festival's Safeguarding Policy will be on display at the Festival and is also available on the Festival website (www.davidclover-festivalofsinging.org.uk). This Policy relates to children (under the age of 18) and also to members of vulnerable groups of any age who are identified to the Festival before their arrival at the Festival. Contact should be made by parents and/or teachers via letter to DCFS, 358 Ecclesall Road South, Sheffield S11 9PY or email enquiries@davidclover-festivalofsinging.org.uk). The Festival will actively seek to meet the needs of children from ethnic groups and children who are disabled. Any subsequent reference to 'children' includes members of other vulnerable groups. DCFS has Body of Persons Authority for child licencing purposes.

Safety of Performers: Teachers and parents should be aware of their responsibilities in entering any performers with limited physical capabilities or special needs. They should pass on any such information that might impact on the Festival's work, in writing, before the start of the Festival to Joy Bowler, 358 Ecclesall Road South, Sheffield S11 9PY.

Supervision of Children: Please note that all children under 16 years of age must be accompanied and supervised effectively. Supervision may come from a parent, an adult acting on their behalf, a teacher or a group leader. The David Clover Festival of Singing cannot take responsibility for unsupervised children at the Festival venues. Any person acting in a supervisory capacity will be expected to pay the normal admission fee.

Withdrawals and Class Start Times: As it is impossible to foresee the number of last-minute withdrawals from classes due to illness or for any other reason, the Festival reserves the right to start classes early, except for the first class of a session.

Please make sure you arrive in plenty of time.

The David Clover Festival of Singing

www.davidclover-festivalofsinging.org.uk

Dr David Clover came to Sheffield in 1966 having been appointed as the Music Advisor to the city's Education Department. It was one of the earliest residential courses for music teachers and its daily choral sessions, organised by David, which brought the first members of The Sheffield Teachers' Choir (as it was then known) together in the autumn term of 1968.

Following David's untimely death in 1979, the Teachers' Choir committee at the time decided to create a lasting tribute and memorial to his work. The result was the establishment of the David Clover Competition for Singers, renamed the David Clover Festival of Singing in 2010. The original competition started in a small way with only 2 classes for singers of secondary school age, providing the opportunity for the singers to be helped and encouraged by experienced judges of singing, an ethos that is still as strong today. The Festival has grown into a competition of high standing, credibility and stature in Sheffield, nationally and now internationally and is open to all singers from the age of nine. One of David's greatest loves was singing, whether solo or choral, and he believed that the voice deserved equal status with other musical instruments.

The Singers' Platform section of the Festival was formed in 2015 especially to support, both musically and financially, young singers on their journey into the profession. Singers come from all corners of the UK.

Over the years, internationally famed singers have adjudicated at the Festival: Constance Shacklock, Marjorie Thomas, Jean Allister, Mollie Petrie (first Patron) and Mark Wildman (President) and many previous winners, including Elizabeth Watts, have joined the singing profession.

Once the annual Festival has ended, The City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir is always delighted to invite singers from the Festival to share its concerts whenever possible.

Mark Wildman

Mark Wildman received his early formal musical education at The King's School, Gloucester and as a chorister in Gloucester Cathedral where he studied and sang under Dr Herbert Sumsion. Later on, he studied at The Royal Academy of Music under the guidance of Henry Cummings, Rex Stephens, Tom Hammond and Norman Feasey and later on with Rupert Bruce Lockhart. He was awarded the Westmorland Scholarship, the Academy Recital Diploma and the Frederick Shinn Fellowship. His career began as a Choral Exhibitioner at St. George's Chapel, Windsor Castle, where he sang for three years which was followed by a similar period with the BBC Singers with whom he travelled and performed world-wide.

2013 marked Mark's fortieth and final season on the concert platform as a recitalist and soloist in Oratorio. His last concert being in Huddersfield Town Hall with the Huddersfield Choral Society, in Handel's Israel in Egypt, forty years after his debut in that hall. He travelled and performed throughout Europe, Scandanavia, the British Isles and the USA, performing with many of Britain's foremost orchestras and with several leading conductors of the day, among them Gennadi Rozhdestvensky, Sir Neville Marriner, Meredith Davies, Donald Hunt, Michael Gielen, Jane Glover, Christopher Robinson, John Sanders and Sir David Willcocks. He now devotes himself entirely to teaching and working with young singers at the Royal Academy of Music and at Shrewsbury School. For almost thirty years he served as an examiner, trainer and moderator for ABRSM and has served as an external examiner for Royal College of Music, Trinity Laban Conservatoire, Guildhall School of Music and Drama, Wales International Academy of Voice and Royal Northern College of Music where he is currently serving as an external specialist examiner in Vocal Studies.

Since 1982 he has combined a busy performing career with that of a professor of singing at the Royal Academy of Music where he was appointed to the Vocal Faculty in 1982 and subsequently as Head of Vocal Studies in 1991. He has taught prize winners in some of the most prominent British and Overseas singing awards: Cardiff Singer of the World, the Tenor Vinas Contest in Barcelona, the Kathleen Ferrier Memorial Awards, the Royal Overseas League, the National Mozart Competition, and the Kathleen Ferrier Bursary. Many of his current and former students are now singing principal roles with national and international opera companies including La Scala Milan, the Bolshoi, Moscow, St Petersburg, the Metropolitan Opera, New York, Bavarian State Opera in Munich, the Vienna State Opera, English National Opera, Opera North, Scottish Opera, Welsh National Opera, Hannover Staatsoper, Staatsoper Hamburg, Glyndebourne Festival Opera and at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden. He is a much-travelled adjudicator and has served as a jury member at several international singing competitions. He has visited Holland, Germany, USA, Iceland, France and Spain to give Masterclasses. He was elected a Fellow of the Royal Academy of Music in 1994, a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts in 1995, and a Professor in the University of London in 2013. He was twice elected President of the RAM Club. In August 2017 on his retirement as Head of Vocal Studies, the Principal conferred upon him the title of Henry Cummings Distinguished Professor of Singing.

Adrian Thompson

London born Adrian Thompson is an artist of extraordinary versatility with a wide-ranging opera, concert and recital repertoire of works from the Renaissance to Contemporary music periods.

His recent opera appearances have included Skuratov (The House of the Dead) and Canio (I Pagliacci) for Opera Frankfurt; Florestan (Fidelio) for Welsh National Opera, Albert Gregor (The Makropoulos Case) and Midas (Die Liebe der Danae) for Garsington Opera; as well as concert performances as Grigory (Boris Godunov) at The Brighton Festival and Bacchus (Ariadne auf Naxos) at the Barbican, London. He has also performed with Glyndebourne; The Royal Opera House, Covent Garden; English National Opera; Scottish Opera; Badisches Staatstheater; Staatstheater Stuttgart; Staatstheater Darmstadt; Théâtre des Champs Elysées; New Israel Opera; Netherlands Opera; Opera Zuid; and at many Festivals including Buxton, Wexford, Lausanne and Göttingen.

Adrian Thompson has performed with all the major British orchestras and ensembles and his overseas engagements have taken him to Australia, North America, Japan, Russia and the Baltic States as well as Europe and Scandinavia. During his career he has worked with many of the distinguished Early Music conductors - Sir John Eliot Gardiner, Trevor Pinnock, Harry Christophers and Philippe Herreweghe. No stranger to the contemporary music repertoire, he has performed Lutoslawski's Paroles Tisées, recorded Judith Wier's A Night at the Chinese Opera and given many premieres of works by British and European composers.

A very experienced recitalist, Adrian Thompson has made many appearances at the Wigmore Hall and at Festivals in the UK and Europe with pianists Graham Johnson, Iain Burnside, Roger Vignoles and harpist Ossian Ellis. He has recorded discs of works by Vaughan-Williams and Gurney, a volume in the acclaimed Complete Schubert Edition for Hyperion, Warlock's The Curlew and Schubert's Die Schöne Müllerin. He also appears on Britten's A Midsummer Night's Dream; Vaughan-Williams' The Pilgrim's Progress and Sir John in Love and a recording of Händel's Rodelinda. His discography also includes Britten's Serenade, Les Illuminations and Nocturne, Mendelssohn's Lobegesang and Busoni's Rondo Arlechinesco.

Vivien Pike

Vivien studied music at the Royal Manchester/Royal Northern College of Music after previously studying medical sciences. She graduated with teaching and performing diplomas and a silver medal. Vivien has wide experience as a recitalist and soprano soloist with many choral societies. She has sung in choirs from the age of 7 and is a former member of the BBC Northern Singers. She is vocal coach for several choral societies.

Over the years as a peripatetic teacher of singing in Yorkshire, she has taught hundreds of young singers, one of the first being Lesley Garrett. Her choirs have won many prizes in national and international competitions and have enjoyed tours to Italy, Germany, Ireland, Australia (representing UK at the first Melbourne International Choral Festival), Canada and USA, Finland and Estonia. Her female choir celebrated 30 years of high standard singing in 2009. Vivien is in great demand for solo singing and choral workshops and has worked with singers in Sweden, Latvia, Ireland, New Zealand and Estonia. She has lectured in Latvia and Slovenia and recently as a visiting professor at the Estonian Academy of Music. Her international jury work includes the World Choir Games in Linz and Graz, festivals in Malta, Italy, Germany, Ireland, Jersey and is currently the UK representative on the World Choir Council. She is an external examiner of singing at degree level and a former visiting lecturer/examiner in choral conducting at Huddersfield University.

She was awarded an Honorary Doctorate by Sheffield Hallam University in 2006 for her work with singers nationally and internationally and is a Churchill Fellow, researching the Cultural Influences on Voice Development in Sweden, Finland and Estonia. She has recently been elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts and was awarded a Fellowship of the British and International Federation of Festivals (BIFF) in 2013. She has been a BIFF adjudicator for more than 30 years.
